Research Opportunities

IRP Small Grants and Sabbatical Grants, 1992-1993

The Institute for Research on Poverty at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services will sponsor the twelfth competition under the Small Grants and Sabbatical Grants program for research on poverty-related topics during the period July 1993 through June 1994. Subject to availability of funding, two programs are offered: (1) several grants of up to $15,000 each (two months salary, plus related research costs) are available and do not require residence in Madison or Washington, D.C.; (2) a smaller number of grants of up to $35,000 each are available for visitors in residence at either IRP or the Department of Health and Human Services during the 1993-94 academic year. The latter awards may be made for research sabbaticals or postdoctoral research. Researchers must hold the Ph.D. To obtain guidelines (available October 1), write to Small Grants Program, Institute for Research on Poverty, 1180 Observatory Drive, 3412 Social Science Building, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706. Application deadline: February 5, 1993.

University of Michigan's Research and Training Program on Poverty, the Underclass, and Public Policy

The University of Michigan's Research and Training Program on Poverty, the Underclass, and Public Policy offers one- and two-year postdoctoral fellowships to American minority scholars to expand knowledge in this area in all the social sciences. Fellows will conduct their own research and participate in a year-long seminar on Poverty, the Underclass, and Public Policy under the direction of Sheldon Danziger, Professor of Social Work and Public Policy, and Mary Corcoran, Professor of Political Science, Public Policy, and Social Work. Funds are provided by the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations. Applicants must have completed their Ph.D. by August

1, 1993. The application deadline is January 8, 1993. For an application packet, contact the Program on Poverty, the Underclass, and Public Policy, School of Social Work, 1065 Frieze Building, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1285.

Fellowships and Grants from the Social Science Research Council

The Social Science Research Council, through its Committee for Research on the Urban Underclass, is providing fellowships and grants in 1993 with funds from the Rockefeller Foundation. Research topics must be related to the urban underclass. Special emphasis is placed on the recruitment and training of minority students and scholars.

1. Dissertation fellowships are available to provide financial support for full-time research directed toward the completion of the doctoral dissertation. These fellowships offer stipends of up to $1000 a month for up to 18 months and additional resources of up to $4000 to cover research expenses incurred during the fellowship period. Applications will be accepted from any doctoral candidate who has completed all the requirements necessary for the Ph.D. except the dissertation, and whose proposal has been approved by the candidate's dissertation committee.

2. Faculty members and university administrators may apply for the support of undergraduate research assistance on topics related to the urban underclass. Stipends of up to $4000 per student and research-related expenses of up to $1000 per student are available for undergraduates who are members of minority groups. For group research projects, at least half of the students must belong to minority groups.

Applications must be postmarked by December 10, 1992. For further information and application materials contact Social Science Research Council/Research on the Urban Underclass, 605 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10158.
