BLACK LIVES MATTER
#blacklivesmatter: An Analysis and Critique of the Movement

Race in America: Reconsideration and Reconciliation
CLASS TOPICS

- INCARCERATION
- Black Panthers
- Ferguson, Missouri
- Education
- Environmental Injustice
- HOUSING
- Civil Rights

- LBGQTIA
- Food Insecurity
- Womanism
- STRAFICATION ECONOMICS
- Mental Health
- Health
- Alt Right
SOURCES OF DATA:

- MUSIC
- PODCASTS
- SCHOLARLY READINGS
- TELEVISION
- DOCUMENTARY
black LIVES MATTER

May 5 - May 10

Artist Reception:
May 5, 11 am - 12 pm
UWM Art History Gallery
Mitchell Hall Rm 154
3203 N Downer Ave

What do we mean when we say that black lives matter?
Why don't all lives matter?
And what does race have to do with anything in America nowadays?

We invite you to join us as we share the results from our careful study of the current issues.
We’ve got to tell the unvarnished truth.

JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN (2005)

National Museum of African American History and Culture
Smithsonian Museums
Washington, D.C.