

IRP Affiliate Benefits & Services

YOU DO THE SCIENCE, WE'LL DO THE REST

The Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP) offers extensive grant administration services including:

 PRE- & POST- AWARD SERVICES
Budgeting, reporting, reconciliation

 EDITORIAL & GRAPHIC SUPPORT
Editing, formatting, data visualization

 COMPUTING SERVICES
SSCC access, assistance

 HUMAN RESOURCES SUPPORT
Pay plans, payroll, reporting

 IRB SUPPORT
Protocol development & management

 RESEARCH DISSEMINATION
Print, multi-media

Learn more @ www.irk.wisc.edu/administrative-staff-task-contact/

THE WI ADMINISTRATIVE DATA CORE

IRP houses one of the richest linked administrative data systems in the country, including historic records for more than 7 million Wisconsin residents and data from:

Learn more @ www.irk.wisc.edu/wadc/

GET YOUR RESEARCH NOTICED

IRP translates and disseminates research on poverty and inequality through:

- Focus on Poverty articles & classroom supplement
- Fast Focus Policy Briefs
- Seminars (see below)
- Podcasts
- Webinars
- Animated Videos
- Fact Sheets
- Reports
- Poverty FAQs
- Wisconsin State Agency Learning Exchanges

Learn more @ www.irk.wisc.edu/editorial-staff-task-contacts/

TRAINING FOR GRAD STUDENTS

The IRP Graduate Research Fellows (GRF) program offers interdisciplinary training, networking, and research support, including funding, for Ph.D. students who expect to complete a poverty related dissertation.

Learn more @ www.irk.wisc.edu/training/graduate-research-fellows-program/

IRP SEMINAR SERIES

IRP's weekly seminar series highlights cutting edge poverty research from IRP affiliates around the country. Held Thursdays from 12:15–1:30 p.m.

Learn more @ www.irk.wisc.edu/events/

MAKING A DIFFERENCE FOR OVER 50 YEARS • www.irk.wisc.edu

IRP is an independent, nonpartisan multidisciplinary center at the University of Wisconsin–Madison in the College of Letters and Science. IRP serves as the sole federally funded National Poverty Research Center on Poverty and Economic Mobility through a five-year, $10.6 million agreement with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. IRP supports and collaborates with more than 200 research affiliates across the United States and has a portfolio exceeding $30 million in external awards.